Program Description:

Transform the courtroom into a classroom in this highly acclaimed workshop. Experienced trial lawyers act as coaches to develop a team trial strategy. Teams then square off in the courtroom and try the case before a real judge. Study the exhibits, examine live witnesses, and weave your theory through every phase of the trial. Every participant conducts an examination-in-chief and cross-examination and delivers either an opening statement or a closing argument. Afterwards, the judge and both coaches will offer constructive guidance on how to improve your style and technique in the future. The post-program reception offers the perfect opportunity to casually connect with judges and senior trial lawyers.

Early Bird Ends March 1, 2017
