

Arash Nayerahmadi

ARASH NAYERAHMADI
is an associate at Lenczner Slaght.

Arash's litigation practice focuses on complex commercial disputes and professional liability. Prior to joining the firm, Arash served as a judicial law clerk to the judges of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice in Toronto, including the Commercial List.

Arash graduated from Osgoode Hall Law School, where he received numerous academic awards, and finished in the top 10% of the graduating class and second overall in his final year. He served as the Executive Editor of the Osgoode Hall Law Journal and volunteered at the Canadian Civil Liberties Association through Pro Bono Students Canada.

Before starting his career in law, Arash was an associate in the financial audit group at a multinational professional services firm and a management consultant at a top Toronto firm.

Education

Osgoode Hall Law School (2020) JD
McGill University (2015) BComm
(Accounting)
Queen's University (2015) GDAP
(Accounting)

Bar Admissions

Ontario (2021)

Practice Areas

Appeals
Arbitration
Class Actions
Commercial Litigation
Product Liability
Professional Liability and Regulation
Securities Litigation

Contact

T 416-238-7452
anayerahmadi@litigate.com

SELECT PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

- Far Beyond Baker: Heuristics and the Inadequacy of the Reasonable Apprehension of Bias Analysis – Arash Nayerahmadi authored an article examining the reasonable apprehension of bias analysis in light of adjudicators' vulnerability to cognitive biases. His article was published in Volume 59 of the Osgoode Hall Journal.
- Over-Indebted Criminals in Canada – Arash Nayerahmadi co-authored the article "Over-Indebted Criminals in Canada", published in Volume 32, No. 4 (2019) of the Manitoba Law Journal. This article examines the "justice debt" regime, including the formerly mandatory victim surcharge, to illustrate the ways it interacts with the lives of indigent Canadians. (Prior to joining Lenczner Slaght)

SELECT NEWS ARTICLES

- Lenczner Slaght Welcomes Six New Associates – Canada's leading litigation firm continues to strengthen its talent pool with the addition of six exceptional associates.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- The Advocates' Society
- Canadian Bar Association
- Ontario Bar Association