Grace Tsakas

is a law clerk at Lenczner Slaght.

Grace has almost three decades of experience in various areas of law, including civil, commercial, insurance and securities litigation, as well as corporate and public policy. She has also assisted in the preparation of applications and regulatory filings to various administrative tribunals. She has been involved in many high profile, complex commercial litigation matters and class actions requiring intensive management of information and documentation. She provides lawyers with support throughout the entire litigation process, from initial meeting and fact investigation, to examination for discovery, mediation, arbitration and trial preparation and attendance, including providing support as an action moves to the Court of Appeal and Supreme Court of Canada. In addition, she is also involved with the enforcement of judgments.

Grace is results oriented and assisted with creating the firm's protocols intended to ensure consistency in processes, which in turn simplifies the management of actions. She is proficient in electronic document management and provides the firm with eDiscovery project management and support that generates solutions within various platforms, including Ipro Eclipse and Ipro Eclipse SE, Summation, Relativity and Clearwell.

Grace is fluent in Spanish.
